

CITY OF TEMECULA

INSURANCE: FILM COMMISSION

To film in the City, a production company must submit a request through the Inland Empire Film Commission (IEFC). The IEFC submits the film company's application to the City for review - which includes approval of the film company's insurance coverage as well as verification that the insurance company is authorized to do business in California.

Insurance Requirements Include:

- 1) General Liability: Two million ($2,000,000) per occurrence for bodily injury, personal injury and property damage. If Commercial General Liability Insurance or other form with a general aggregate limit is used, either the general aggregate limit shall apply separately to this project or the general aggregate limit shall be twice the required occurrence limit.
- 2) Automobile Liability: One million ($1,000,000) per accident for bodily injury and property damage. Auto Coverage covering Automobile Liability, code 1 (any auto). If the organization owns no automobiles, a non-owned auto endorsement to the General Liability policy described above is acceptable.
- 3) Worker's Compensation: As required by the State of California;

Employer's Liability: One million ($1,000,000) per accident for bodily injury or disease. If owner of company does not have employees, Worker's Compensation is not required. Contractor warrants and represents to the City that it has no employees and that it will not obtain the required Worker's Compensation Insurance upon the hiring of any employees.

Policies must be placed under the Event Holder's name. The City of Temecula, Successor Agency to the Temecula Redevelopment Agency, and the Temecula Community Services District must be named as an additional insured under the Event Holder's policy. The insurance carrier must have rating of A- VII or above.
